

Torrance Woman's Club Wins Laurels

Thirteen times during the Awards Banquet at the annual Marina District Convention, California Federation of Women's Clubs, held last weekend at the Airport Marina Hotel, representatives of the Torrance Woman's Club were called to the podium to accept awards for achievements during the past year. Delegates, pictured at the left, are Mmes. R. E. Moffitt, president, who was presented with the 100% President's Award; Mark A. Wright, first place in scholarships; Ira Arent, second place in cultural heritage; Gordon

Gmur, second place youth and first place in public education; and Clayton Lilley, second for press book. In right picture, from left, Mmes. D. Boone Kirks, second place, literature; Don Wolf, first, International Hostess; Richard Dorothy, second, art; J. A. Tweedy, second, drama; seated, from left, Wayne L. Norman, first, Epsilon Sigma Omicron; Alan Moore, second, Mental Health; and H. R. Richards, second, conservation.

(Press-Herald Photos)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1968

B-1

Jeffers-Hull Vows Recited

Miss Barbara J. Jeffers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jeffers, 23715 Vine Ave., walked down the aisle of the Christ Lutheran Church, on the arm of her father, at 3 o'clock on April 6, to exchange marriage vows with Phillips A. Hull III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Hull, Jr. 24003 Huber Ave.

Her original wedding gown of silk organza over bridal taffeta featured a Sabrina neckline, long sleeves and was enhanced with Alencon lace medallions sprinkled with pearls. A pearl and lace headpiece held her veil and she carried butterfly orchids and stephanotis.

In lime green gowns, attendants were Mrs. Darlene Isbell, Misses Randi McGraw, Patty Cox, and Karen Hull. Tracy Staubs was flower girl.

Steve Hull stood as best man and the 120 guests were seated by Sam Intermill, Sidney Hortin and Allen Hull. Paul Staubs was ring bearer. Rev. L. Passow officiated at the marriage, which was followed by a church reception and a buffet dinner at the home of the bride's parents.

After a Carmel honeymoon, the newlyweds are at home at 1844 Plaza Del Amo.

Mr. and Mrs. Hull are both graduates of Torrance High School and Mr. Hull attended El Camino College.

MRS. PHILLIPS A. HULL III
(Harold Sanders Photo)

ROMANTIC NEW ORLEANS

With a twirl of umbrellas, Mrs. Edward Sokolski, president, and Mrs. William E. Houghton, ways and means chairman, announce a Headdress Contest as a feature of Las Madrecitas' Mardi Gras Fashion Spectacular to be held June 6. Proceeds will go to the group's pledge to Orthopaedic Hospital.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Madrecitas Slates

Headdress Contest For Fashion Event

A Headdress Contest, in which representatives of philanthropic organizations will compete for a cash prize to aid their charities, will headline the excitement planned by Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopaedic Hospital, when it stages its mammoth Fashion Benefit on June 6.

The Proud Bird restaurant will be the scene of the festive "Mardi Gras" of fashions modeled by professionals including a singer. Judges for the Headdress contest will be Miss Helen Parker of Orthopaedic Hospital Guild; Mrs. H. F. B. Roessler; and a surprise television personality.

Mrs. Clarence Burke of Rolling Hills, chairman of the show, is being assisted by Mrs. Rodger Lancaster, co-chairman. Other committee chairmen are Mmes. Jack Ewing, Harry Sharpe, invitations; William Mayhall, reservations; John Ashford, Ernest Jacobs, decorations; F. A. Rutkosky, Philip Horwith, seating.

Also, Mmes. John Foster, A. G. diIorio, publicity; Jack Sides, door prizes; Keith Nelson, R. W. Spelch, prizes; and Howard Anderson, Headdress Parade.

Engagements

Faulds - O'Neal

Friends and relatives attending a party Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Faulds, 22916 Juniper Ave. heard the announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Deryle Heather, to Spec. 4 Michael James O'Neal.

The bride-elect was graduated in 1967 from Torrance High School and is now attending El Camino College.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. James O'Neal, is a 1966 graduate of South High School.

Just returned from Vietnam where he had been serving with the 173rd Airborne Brigade, he will end his tour of duty with the United States Army with the 82nd Airborne Brigade in Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

No date has been set for the wedding.

DERYLE FAULDS

Pisel - Zayakosky

September 21 has been chosen as their wedding day by Miss Melody Lee Pisel and Gary Zayakosky.

Their daughter's engagement and approaching wedding is announced today by Rev. and Mrs. Letand L. Pisel, 18235 Kingsdale Ave., Redondo Beach.

Parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Zayakosky, 18209 Dorman Ave., Torrance.

Both graduates of North High School, Miss Pisel is employed at the Security First National Bank while Mr. Zayakosky is attending El Camino College. He is also employed at a local market.

MELODY PISEL

Bell - Rodriguez

Mr. and Mrs. Wain E. Bell, 1207 Felbar Ave., announce the engagement of their daughter, Riana Jane, to Richard J. Rodriguez, son of Mr. Louie F. Rodriguez of Torrance.

Both Miss Bell and her fiancé are graduates of Torrance High School. She is attending Long Beach State College and he is a student at El Camino.

No date has been set for the wedding.

RIANA BELL

Excitement is high as Harbor Hospital's Volunteers for Children get ready for their annual "Day at the Races" at Hollywood Park, May 10. Visiting the track, in anticipation of the money-raising event, are from left, Mrs. Earl Chambers, treasurer; Frank Crase, Chief of Patient Programs at the hospital; and Mrs. Kenneth Gaer, president of the group. Proceeds will be used to purchase nursery instruments used to detect the stopping of breathing by infants. Tickets may be secured from any member or at the Volunteers Office at the Hospital.

As
Post Time
Nears